There are lots of seagulls on these pages.
Can you count them all?

Celebrate Sea Sunday!

Sea Sunday is a special opportunity for us to remember and say prayers for all of the brave men and women who go to work at sea to make sure we have all that we need. These brave men and women are called seafarers and they work in dangerous and lonely conditions, sometimes not seeing their families for months at a time. The Mission to Seafarers is here to support and care for seafarers all over the world.

Please return your messages and colourful seafarers to this address:

Make a seafarer smile

Seafarers are very important to us. They work really hard to make sure we get many of the items we need. Colour in these seafarers and make them smile.

The Mission to Seafarers has been caring for seafarers for over 160 years. One of the ways that we care for seafarers is by having our chaplain visit them on their ships. The chaplains are there to offer help with anything from providing warm clothing, food, encouragement and advice to helping them contact their families.
